Pakistani Hindu Migrants Left Without Shelter After Jodhpur Demolition

Original reporting by Swati Goel Sharma

A family sitting under shade of a charpoy on 28 April.

CASE SUMMARY

Demolition site	Sectors 2 and 3 of the JDA's Rajiv Gandhi Colony residential project in Jodhpur.
Demolition on 24 April	The JDA demolished about 70 structures and a shared water tank.
JDA's reason	The commissioner said the drive cleared encroachments on government land.
Shelter on 28 April	One displaced family spent a night of strong winds and heavy rain under a propped-up charpoy.
School disruption	A child said some pupils staying with relatives could still attend school while others waited for their homes to be rebuilt.
