Gurugram Residents Unaware of Police Findings on Threat Posters

Original reporting by Swati Goel Sharma

Residents of the Sector 69 slums

CASE SUMMARY

Location	Sector 69, Gurugram, opposite Tulip White society.
Poster threats	Two posters told the predominantly Muslim residents to leave the settlement permanently.
Names on the posters	The posters were signed in the names of the VHP and its youth wing, Bajrang Dal.
Police account of motive	Police said Mohammed Arif posted the threats to exploit communal tensions and eliminate competition in his scrap trade.
Temporary displacement	Residents said they stayed with relatives or friends nearby and returned after a week or two.
