Conversion Dispute Over Chhattisgarh's Government Wedding Scheme

Original reporting by Swati Goel Sharma

Picture of the nikah on 13 March.

CASE SUMMARY

Mass wedding	The ceremony took place on 13 March in Kot village, Surajpur district, with 85 couples selected.
Ceremony for one couple	Photographs show an Islamic cleric conducting a conversion and nikah for one couple, while the others married under Hindu rites.
Father's complaint	In his 17 March complaint, the woman's father alleged that she had been manipulated into marrying and asked for those who organised the ceremony to be arrested.
Police status	Surajpur police stamped the complaint, but it had yet to become a police case.
Assembly request	A BJP member asked the Leader of Opposition to raise the matter in the Chhattisgarh Assembly.

THE TAKEAWAY

The woman's father disputed the ceremony in a written complaint, and the couple's account was unavailable.
