RASHTRA JYOTI

CASE FILE
900080 · August 2023

Crime & Justice · From the reporting archive

Nangloi Remains Tense After Muharram Rioting and Rally Violence

Original reporting by Swati Goel Sharma

A street in Nangloi Phase 2, where Hindu and Muslim colonies are located opposite to each other. Picture clicked on 31 July.

CASE SUMMARY

Muharram rioting	Rioting broke out in Nangloi, New Delhi, on 29 July.
Surajmal Stadium route dispute	Police stopped some Muharram processions from entering the stadium, saying it was outside the agreed route.
Injuries and damage	At least ten police personnel were injured and several vehicles were vandalised.
Bajrang Dal rally	A resident said stones were thrown at a Bajrang Dal rally the day after Muharram.
Police cases	Police reportedly filed three cases over the 29 July rioting.

THE TAKEAWAY

Shops were still closed and paramilitary personnel stood guard in Nangloi on 31 July after the Muharram rioting and reports of stone-pelting at the next day's rally.

BACK RASHTRA JYOTI.

Support Rashtra Jyoti's ground reporting and interventions on communal violence, damaged livelihoods and accountability for attacks on residents and police.

rashtrajyoti.com/support/

Full article and sources: rashtrajyoti.com/?p=913784

SCAN TO SUPPORT

Updated from an original written by Swati Goel Sharma in August 2023. Summary prepared by Rashtra Jyoti Staff. Facts refer to the original reporting date.