Court Finds Marriage Fraud Behind Imran’s Use of Rahul

Original reporting by Swati Goel Sharma

The case follows a 'love jihad' pattern.

CASE SUMMARY

Marriage registration	The marriage was registered in Ghaziabad on 4 April 2018 under the name Rahul.
Conversion allegation	The woman said in her plea that the man pressured her to convert to Islam after the registration.
Court finding	The Baghpat family court found that the man had never accepted Hinduism and had used the name Rahul on the form to mislead the woman.
Verdict	The court ruled the marriage void under the Hindu Marriage Act because both parties were required to be Hindu.
Police case	The woman’s brother said the families reached a compromise in the presence of police and she agreed not to pursue the case.
