CASE SUMMARY

Bareilly march	Thousands of people from Bareilly and surrounding areas took to the streets on Friday to protest alleged blasphemy.
Slogans	Protesters repeatedly chanted slogans calling for beheading as punishment for speaking against Prophet Mohammed.
Memorandum	Protesters handed the additional district magistrate a memorandum demanding that Narsinghanand be booked under the National Security Act.
Organiser	Dainik Jagran reported that Jamaat Raza-E-Mustafa called the protest and that it was announced through mosque loudspeakers the previous night.
Police press note	Bareilly police said the authorities accepted the memorandum and dispersed the march.
