Child Rape Case Exposes Police and Rehabilitation Lapses

Original reporting by Swati Goel Sharma

The 15-year-old rape survivor.

CASE SUMMARY

Survivor's account	An activist relayed the minor's account, which her sister corroborated. The journalist did not speak directly with the survivor.
31 March FIR	Ujjain police booked three men under IPC rape and gang rape provisions and the POCSO Act.
Arrest status	One of the three accused had been arrested at the time of reporting.
3 April police notice	The child rights commission asked police to explain why the FIR omitted the alleged interstate trafficking.
Two-day deadline	The commission gave the superintendent of police and the district magistrate two days to respond in writing.
