RASHTRA JYOTI

CASE FILE
900349 · February 2020

Crime & Justice · From the reporting archive

Asifabad Victim's Husband Alleges Protest Costs Drained Relief

Original reporting by Swati Goel Sharma

The person on extreme right is Teku Gopi, husband of the victim. The person on the chair is village sarpanch Gangaram. Picture clicked on 3 December/Swarajya

CASE SUMMARY

Discovery	The victim's husband found her body on 25 November in Lingapur mandal, Komaram Bheem-Asifabad district.
Sentencing	A fast-track district court sentenced all three accused to death on 30 January and fined each Rs 26,000.
Relief sanctioned	The National Commission for Scheduled Castes sanctioned Rs 8.25 lakh for the family.
Employment offer	The Telangana government offered the victim's husband a job at a state-run social welfare hostel.
Protest spending allegation	The victim's husband alleged that some Dalit outfits and activists made him spend close to Rs 2 lakh of the compensation on protests.

THE TAKEAWAY

The victim's husband appealed for further state relief and alleged that some outfits and activists had made him spend close to Rs 2 lakh of the family's compensation on protests.

BACK RASHTRA JYOTI.

Support Rashtra Jyoti's follow-up investigations into whether relief sanctioned after atrocities reaches families and remains available for their needs.

rashtrajyoti.com/support/

Full article and sources: rashtrajyoti.com/?p=916923

SCAN TO SUPPORT

Updated from an original written by Swati Goel Sharma in February 2020. Summary prepared by Rashtra Jyoti Staff. Facts refer to the original reporting date.